

Do you know any words or phrases in another language?

Do you have any friends or colleagues who speak a different language?

Do you think other languages can be interesting and fun to use?

Do you think using other languages can lead to new and exciting opportunities?

Would you be willing to try to use and/or encourage others to use other languages?